Description

ZURRIEQ - Discover this enchanting, double-fronted House of Character with a rare Windmill, bursting with authentic Maltese charm and timeless architectural details. Original features include majestic arches, soaring ceilings, traditional patterned tiles, a spiral stone staircase, stone slabs, wooden beams, a central well, and handcrafted wooden apertures.

The ground floor welcomes you with an inviting entrance hall leading to an arched kitchen and dining area that opens onto a quiet yard with a guest toilet and laundry room. Two character-filled, interconnected bedrooms sit on this level—one with an ensuite and the other with its own front patio and second main entrance.

Upstairs, the first floor reveals a warm landing and four charming, interconnected rooms, one with its own ensuite bathroom. A second staircase leads to the roof level, perfect for enjoying peaceful village views.
